2025 Philadelphia Auto Show Is Set For January 11-20 at The PA Convention Center

--Jeff Glanzmann of Glanzmann Subaru to Serve as Chairperson--

East Norriton, PA, November 12, 2024 – The 2025 Philadelphia Auto Show is set for Saturday, January 11th, to Monday, January 20th at the Pennsylvania Convention Center. The 10-day event will include operating hours on Martin Luther King Jr. Day to give Philadelphians an extra opportunity to experience the highly anticipated auto extravaganza. The one-of-a-kind Black Tie Tailgate Preview benefiting Children’s Hospital of Philadelphia will take place on Friday, January 10th.

“Plans are well underway for our 2025 event, and we cannot wait to Fuel Philly once again,” said 2025 Philadelphia Auto Show Chairperson Jeff Glanzmann of Glanzmann Subaru. “This event has become synonymous with winter fun, excitement and automotive education in Philadelphia and our ’25 show will be no exception.”

Glanzmann will serve as chairperson for both the 2025 and 2026 Philadelphia Auto Shows. He is also the incoming president of the Auto Dealers Association of Greater Philadelphia, which is the organization that owns and produces the event.

The Philadelphia Auto Show has been educating area consumers and supporting the local economy for more than a century. It generates an annual economic impact of approximately $50 million for the City of Philadelphia and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The Black Tie Tailgate Preview continues to be recognized as one of the largest philanthropic preview galas in the area. It has proudly raised more than $10 million for the Hospital since its inception in 1986.

More details on the Philadelphia Auto Show and Black Tie Tailgate will be announced in the coming weeks. Please monitor phillyautoshow.com for the most up-to-date information.
